LOT 21 - Antique 19th Century Map of New York - Framed

Description

See photos for condition.

This is a rare and highly collectible antique map of New York from the 19th century. The map is beautifully detailed and hand-colored, depicting the state as it was over a century ago. The map shows signs of aging, with some wear and discoloration that add to its historical appeal. It is professionally framed under glass, preserving its condition and making it ready to hang in any home or office. This map is a wonderful piece for historians, map collectors, or anyone with a love for antique cartography.
